IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

Case No. 2:23-cv-11847

PREPARED FOOD PHOTOS, INC. f/k/a ADLIFE MARKETING & COMMUNICATIONS CO., INC.,

Plaintiff,

v.

CLARKSTON ROYAL DINER, INC.,

Defendant.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Prepared Food Photos, Inc. f/k/a Adlife Marketing & Communications Co., Inc. ("Plaintiff") sues Clarkston Royal Diner, Inc. ("Defendant"), and alleges as follows:

THE PARTIES

- 1. Plaintiff is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida with its principal place of business located in Broward County, Florida.
- 2. Defendant is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Michigan with its principal place of business located at 6540 Dixie Highway Clarkston, MI 48346. Defendant's agent for service of process is Martin Gojcaj, 924 Knob Creek Dr, Rochester, MI 48306.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 3. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a).
  - 4. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because it has maintained sufficient minimum contacts with Michigan such that the exercise of personal jurisdiction over it would not offend traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

5. "[A]n individual defendant 'may be found' in any federal district in which he or she is subject to personal jurisdiction." J4 Promotions, Inc. v. Splash Dogs, LLC, No. 08 CV

977, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 11023, at *79 (N.D. Ohio Feb. 13, 2009). In other words, venue is proper in his District because Defendant is subject to personal jurisdiction in this District. See Big Guy's Pinball, LLC v. Lipham, No. 14-CV-14185, 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS

89512, at *2 (E.D. Mich. July 10, 2015).

FACTS

I. Plaintiff's Business and History

6. Plaintiff is in the business of licensing high-end, professional photographs for the food industry.

7. Through its commercial website (www.preparedfoodphotos.com), Plaintiff offers a monthly subscription service which provides access to/license of tens of thousands of professional images.

8. Plaintiff charges its clients (generally, grocery stores, restaurant chains, food service companies, etc.) a minimum monthly fee of $999.00 for access to its library of professional photographs.

9. Plaintiff does not license individual photographs or otherwise make individual photographs available for purchase. Plaintiff's business model relies on its recurring monthly subscription service such that Plaintiff can continue to maintain its impressive portfolio.

10. Plaintiff owns each of the photographs available for license on its website and serves as the licensing agent with respect to licensing such photographs for limited use by

Plaintiff's customers. To that end, Plaintiff's standard terms include a limited, non-transferable license for us of any photograph by the customer only. Plaintiff's license terms make clear that all copyright ownership remains with Plaintiff and that its customers are not permitted to transfer, assign, or sub-license any of Plaintiff's photographs to another person/entity.

II. The Work at Issue in this Lawsuit

11. In 2007, Plaintiff created a photograph titled "ColdCutAsst031." (the "Work"). A copy of the Work is exhibited below:

- 12. The Work was registered by Plaintiff with the Register of Copyrights on August 26, 2016 and was assigned Registration No. VA 2-014-921. A true and correct copy of the Certification of Registration pertaining to the Work is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."
- 13. Plaintiff is the owner of the Work and has remained the owner at all times material hereto.

III. Defendant's Unlawful Activities

- 14. Defendant is a diner-style restaurant in Clarkston, Michigan.
- 15. Defendant advertises/markets its business primarily through its website (https://www.theroyaldiner.com/) and other forms of advertising.

16. On a date after Plaintiff's above-referenced copyright registration of the Work, Defendant published the Work on its website (at https://www.theroyaldiner.com/catering):

theroyaldiner.com/catering

Home Location

- 17. A true and correct copy of screenshots of Defendant's website, displaying the copyrighted Work, is attached hereto as Exhibit "B."
- 18. Defendant is not and has never been licensed to use or display the Work. Defendant never contacted Plaintiff to seek permission to use the Work in connection with Defendant's website, social media, or for any other purpose.
- 19. Defendant utilized the Work for commercial use namely, in connection with the marketing of Defendant's business.
- 20. Upon information and belief, Defendant located a copy of the Work on the internet and, rather than contact Plaintiff to secure a license, simply copied the Work for its own commercial use.
- 21. Through its ongoing diligent efforts to identify unauthorized use of its photographs, Plaintiff discovered Defendant's unauthorized use/display of the Work in September 2022. Following Plaintiff's discovery, Plaintiff (through its agents) notified Defendants in writing of such unauthorized use. To date, Plaintiff has been unable to negotiate a reasonable license for the past infringement of its Work.

22. All conditions precedent to this action have been performed or have been waived.

COUNT I – COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

23. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates paragraphs 1 through 22 as set forth above.

24. The Work is an original work of authorship, embodying copyrightable subject matter, that is subject to the full protection of the United States copyright laws (17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.).

25. Plaintiff owns a valid copyright in the Work, having registered the Work with the Register of Copyrights and owning sufficient rights, title, and interest to such copyright to afford Plaintiff standing to bring this lawsuit and assert the claim(s) herein.

26. As a result of Plaintiff's reproduction, distribution, and public display of the Work,

Defendant had access to the Work prior to its own reproduction, distribution, and public display of the Work on Defendant's website.

27. Defendant reproduced, distributed, and publicly displayed the Work without authorization from Plaintiff.

28. By its actions, Defendant directly infringed and violated Plaintiff's exclusive rights in violation of the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 501, by reproducing, distributing, and publicly displaying the Work for its own commercial purposes and for the commercial purposes.

29. Plaintiff has been damaged as a direct and proximate result of Defendant's infringement.

30. Defendant's infringement was willful as it acted with actual knowledge or reckless disregard for whether its conduct infringed upon Plaintiff's copyright. Defendant clearly understands that professional photography such as the Work is generally paid for and cannot simply be copied from the internet.

31. Plaintiff is entitled to recover its actual damages resulting from Defendant's unauthorized use of the Work and, at Plaintiff's election (pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b)), Plaintiff is entitled to recover damages based on a disgorgement of Defendant's profits from infringement of the Work, which amounts shall be proven at trial.

32. Alternatively, and at Plaintiff's election, Plaintiff is entitled to statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c), in such amount as deemed proper by the Court.

33. To the extent infringement of the Work occurred post-registration or within the three (3) month period between first publication and registration, then pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §

505, Plaintiff is further entitled to recover its costs and attorneys' fees as a result of Defendant's conduct.

34. Defendant's conduct has caused, and any continued infringing conduct will continue to cause, irreparable injury to Plaintiff unless enjoined by the Court. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502, Plaintiff is entitled to a permanent injunction prohibiting infringement of Plaintiff's exclusive rights under copyright law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendant as follows:

a. A declaration that Defendant has infringed Plaintiff's copyrights in the Work;

b. A declaration that such infringement is willful;

c. An award of actual damages and disgorgement of profits as the Court deems proper or, at Plaintiff's election, an award of statutory damages for willful infringement up to $150,000.00 for each infringement of the Work;

d. Awarding Plaintiff its costs and reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505;

e. Awarding Plaintiff interest, including prejudgment interest, on the foregoing amounts;

f. Permanently enjoining Defendant, its employees, agents, officers, directors, attorneys, successors, affiliates, subsidiaries and assigns, and all those in active concert and participation with Defendant, from directly or indirectly infringing Plaintiff's copyrights or continuing to display, transfer, advertise, reproduce, or otherwise market any works derived or copied from the Work or to participate or assist in any such activity; and

g. For such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Demand For Jury Trial

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on all issued so triable.
